Part A- Self-introduction (30 marks)

Using the language which we have covered in class, you are to record a self-introduction in Japanese. And upload it to the Google classroom.

To maximise your marks for this task, you are to include the following language structures:

An appropriate opening greeting for a self-introduction, your name, age, grade/year, where you live, nationality, how many people in your family and who is in your family and an appropriate closing for a self-introduction (for the purpose of this task, your family can be a fictional one).

You must use language which we have covered in class.

Students who use translation software will receive zero marks.

Part B- In-class Quiz (20 marks)

To assess your understanding of Japanese language you will complete an in-class quiz. The focus of this quiz will be: Hiragana recognition.

You will only be assessed on content that we have covered in class.
